

Electricity bill credits for small business

Eligible small businesses will receive up to $325 credit on electricity bills.

You will need to:

- have an active electricity account
- not operate from a residential address with a residential electricity tariff, and
- meet the definition of a 'small business' in your state or territory. This will be based on your business's annual energy usage.

SUPPORTING / AUSTRALIANS

For more information including eligibility details visit supportingaustralians.gov.au

Australian Government